the employer considers the employee's work is not solely within Grade B because some of the routine and ongoing skills, demands and responsibilities required by the role and performed by the employee fall within Grade C.

Where the employer considers this to have occurred, the employee will be placed on step 1 of Grade C.

4B.5.4 For employees employed prior to 6 March 2023, if progression on the basis of the rules set out in clauses 4B.5.1 to 4B.5.3 above would put the employee in a worse position than they would have been in had they remained subject to the pay scale and progression rules existing prior to 23 November 2022, the employee shall be entitled to progress to the rate they would have been on under the previous system.

4B.6 Pay Equity Review

4B.6.1 The remuneration of employees who routinely undertake work described in the Librarian and Library Assistants' Work Matrix Table set out in clause 4B.2 will be reviewed periodically to ensure that pay equity is maintained. These reviews will be aligned with the collective bargaining round.

4B.6.2 The parties agree to consider a range of available information as part of any review, including but not limited to, trends in changes to the Labour Cost Index, Consumer Price Index, and Treasury analysis of labour movements, as well as trends in changes to the remuneration of the comparator workforces used to assess the Librarian and Library Assistants' Pay Equity Claim.

5.1 Public and Designated Holidays | Ngā Rā Whakatā Tūmatanui

5.1.1 Employees are entitled to the public holidays specified in the Holidays Act 2003.

5.1.2 In addition to the public holidays, employees are entitled to the day after Boxing Day or the first weekday in lieu as a designated holiday.

5.1.3 Entitlement to a public or designated holiday exists where it falls on a day which would otherwise be a working day for the employee.

Note: The parties acknowledge that the leave provisions of this Agreement (and their administration) operate to provide entitlements equal to, or in excess of, those provided under the Holidays Act 2003. To this extent, and except as provided via changes within this Agreement, the parties agree that current administrative practices will continue to operate. As with 4.13.4 above, where inconsistencies with the Holidays Act 2003 exist the parties will continue to work on compliance solutions.

5.2 Entitlement when Required to Work on a Statutory or Designated Holiday | Ngā Whiwhinga i te wā e mahi ana i ngā Rā Whakatā Tūmatanui which shall be one on which the school is closed for instruction, unless otherwise agreed.

5.2.2 An employee who is on call on a public holiday, where the nature of the restriction on the employee's freedom of action is such that for all practical purposes, the employee has not had a holiday, is entitled to an alternative holiday on another agreed working day, which shall be one on which the school is closed for instruction, unless otherwise agreed.

5.2.3 An employee who is only employed to work on a public holiday is not entitled to the additional day.

5.2.4 Work on a public holiday shall be paid in accordance with section 50 of the Holidays Act 2003 i.e. the greater of:

- the portion of the employee's relevant daily pay (less any penal rates) that relates to the time actually worked on the day plus half that amount again; or
- the portion of the employee's relevant daily pay that relates to the time actually worked on the day.

5.2.5 An employee required to work on a designated holiday (see 5.1.2) will be granted equivalent time off in lieu. The appropriate overtime rate will be applicable after 8 hours have been worked at the employee's ordinary rate.

5.3 Holidays Falling During Leave or Time Off | Te Taunga o ngā Rā Whakatā i te Wā Wehenga ā-Tau, Wā Korenga Mahi rānei

5.3.1 Where a statutory or designated holiday falls during a period of annual, sick, or special leave on pay, an employee is entitled to that holiday which is not to be debited against such leave. This shall also apply on termination of employment whereby the final date of work is extended by any annual holiday entitlement not taken, and any statutory holiday falling during that period is debited and the annual leave is extended accordingly.

5.4 Recreation Leave for Standard employees | Te Wehenga Whakangā mā ngā Kaimahi Ahuwhānui

One day's recreation leave will be granted each year to Standard scale employees and must be taken during the following year. Recreation leave not taken at the time of ceasing service with the School will be forfeited.

5.5 Annual Leave for Standard employees | Te Wehenga ā-Tau mā ngā Kaimahi Ahuwhānui

5.5.1 Annual leave is to be taken in term holidays wherever practicable.

5.5.2 Annual leave of 5 weeks per annum shall be allowed in accordance with the Holidays Act 2003 (refer table 1 below);

5.5.3 Employees shall, on completion of six years' service, become entitled to annual leave of 6 weeks per annum as at 1 December immediately following. (refer to table 1 below).

SERVICE	ANNUAL LEAVE ENTITLEMENT
0-6 years service	5 weeks annual leave + 1 recreational day *
7 years service	6 weeks annual leave + 1 recreational day *

* refer clause 5.4

5.5.4 Except in relation to a closedown period or when agreement is unable to be reached, when annual holidays are to be taken is to be agreed between the employer and employee.

5.5.5 Except as specifically provided by the employer, an employee who has been absent on special leave with or without pay in excess of 35 consecutive days in 1 or more periods in any leave year is to have their leave reduced in the proportion that the number of days leave bears to 365.

Note: The operation of the provision shall not disadvantage any employee in relation to any minimum entitlement under the Holidays Act 2003.

5.5.6 For example, an employee with 5 weeks leave entitlement who has had 55 days special leave will have their annual leave entitlement reduced by $55/365 \times 25 = 4$ days.

5.5.7 Employees with over 20 years continuous service may anticipate and take 1 years' annual leave entitlement in advance for the purpose of taking an overseas trip.

5.5.8 Employees may be permitted to anticipate up to half the annual leave entitlement due, subject to refund on termination or resignation of employment if necessary. Employees in their first year of service may be granted anticipated annual leave proportionate to their length of service.

5.5.9 Holiday pay shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Holidays Act 2003 except as provided under 4.13 above.

5.6 Annual Leave for Rostered employees | Te Wehenga ā-Tau mā ngā Kaimahi ā-Raupapa

5.6.1 These provisions will only apply to employees who have been placed on the Rostered scale hours of work (clause 3.1.2 (b) refers).

5.6.2 Rostered employees are entitled to five weeks paid annual leave per annum, to be taken on days when the school is closed. After the five week entitlement is exhausted, rostered employees will continue to be on paid time off for the remainder of the days that the school is closed (unless they are on approved leave without pay, or planning, preparation or professional development).

5.6.3 The employer will endeavour to arrange matters at the school in such a way that any requirement under this section is not unreasonable. By prior arrangement the employee's own initiatives in undertaking work for the above purposes may be counted when applying this clause.

5.6.4 It is agreed that days when the school is not open for instruction shall constitute 'working days' for the purposes of 5.2.1 above.

5.6.5 Days when the school is not open for instruction (Closed School periods) cannot attract overtime or penal time, as such payments are only ever due for actual penal or overtime worked by Rostered employees during Open School periods. The salary payable during such Closed School periods will be at the average weekly earnings rate as calculated according to clause 4.13.2.

5.7 Parental Leave | Te Wehenga ā-Mātua

5.7.1 Parental Leave will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987. The following is a guide to the four types of leave available to employees who qualify:

Primary carer leave for one continuous period, not exceeding 26 weeks;
Special leave totalling up to 10 days (without pay) for reasons connected with the pregnancy;
Partner's leave of either 1 week or 2 weeks depending on the circumstances of the employee (without pay);
Extended parental leave for the primary carer or the person assuming responsibility for the care of the child, for either 26 weeks to 52 weeks depending on the circumstances of the employee (without pay).

5.7.2 Employees intending to take parental leave are required to give at least 3 months notice in writing, supported by a doctor's or midwife's certificate, confirming the pregnancy and expected date of delivery or in the event of an adoption, provide the employer with notice within 14 days of the employee receiving notice confirming the adoption.

5.7.3 The employer agrees to uphold the presumption in Part V of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987 that an employee's position can be kept open during extended parental leave, except in exceptional circumstances.

Note: Clauses 5.7.1 to 5.7.3 summarise, but do not take the place of the Parental Leave and Employment Protection Act 1987. A copy of the Act and other associated material is also available on www.employment.govt.nz.

5.7.4 Parental Grant

Where an employee, who is entitled to parental leave of up to 52 weeks, returns to duty before or at the expiration of the leave and completes a further 6 months service, they qualify for a payment equivalent to 30 working days leave on pay, i.e. at the rate applying for the 30 working days immediately following their ceasing duty.

Provided that, if both male and female partners are employed in the School, or the employee's partner is employed in the State Sector, and are both eligible for payment, then they are entitled to 1 and only 1 payment, and they may choose (after they have qualified) who will receive it.

Any adjustments to the salary scale that are backdated into the period covered will apply.

An employee who is absent on parental leave for less than 6 weeks (30 working days) will receive that proportion of the payment that their absence represents in working days.

Any payment is to be based on the percentage rate of employment prior to absence on parental leave.

However, a woman who works less than full normal hours for a short period only, prior to her commencing parental leave, may have her case for full payment considered by the employer.

5.8 Special Leave With or Without Pay | Te Wehenga Motuhake, Whai Utu, Utu Kore rānei

5.8.1 An employee may be granted special leave with or without pay. Placement on return from special leave without pay of more than 1 month is conditional on a suitable vacancy being available at the School, and grading cannot be guaranteed. An employee who cannot be placed in employment on return will be given 3 months' notice in writing that employment is to be terminated.

5.8.2 Examples of the type of leave that could be taken as special leave with or without pay at the employer's discretion:

Leave without pay to work for the PSA.

Leave without pay to accompany a partner on an overseas posting.

Study Leave - where the course of study is of value to the employer.

Outward Bound - paid leave and/or payment of fees.

Conferences and Conventions - paid leave may be granted to attend conferences and conventions of value to the employer.

Note: The employer will take into account the needs of the School and the employee in dealing with applications for study leave. In addition to leave for study, the employer may grant leave for examinations, reimburse course fees wholly or in part and assist with travel costs.

Note: Leave without pay interrupts but does not break service.

5.10 Sickness at Home | Te Māuiui i te Kāinga

Employees may be granted leave on pay as a charge against their sick leave entitlement when the employee must be absent from work because their spouse, partner or a person who depends upon the employee for care, is sick or injured.

5.9.1 The employer shall grant 10 working days sick leave per annum, with the first entitlement falling due on the date of appointment. Unused entitlement accumulates. No deduction from sick leave will be made for absences of less than 2 hours.

5.9.2 The employee intending to take sick leave must notify the employer as early as possible before the employee is due to start work or, if this is not practicable, as early as possible after that time.

5.9.3 The employer may decide that sick leave on pay of any special nature shall not be included in the aggregate of sick leave taken; but such leave is to be noted on the employee's leave record.

5.9.4 Where absence on sick leave, whether with or without pay, extends beyond three consecutive days, the employees may be required to produce a medical certificate signed by a registered health practitioner stating the probable period of absence, at their expense.

5.9.5 Where the employee absent on sick leave is suspected of being absent from duty without sufficient cause, the employee may be directed to submit to medical examination by a registered medical practitioner. The employer shall meet the employee's reasonable expenses in obtaining the medical certificate.

5.9.6 When sickness occurs during annual leave, the employer may permit the period of sickness to be debited against sick leave entitlement except where the sickness occurs during leave following termination of employment.

5.9.7 Rostered employees under clause 5.6 shall not have sick leave debited when the school is closed for instruction except where it occurs on a day specified for planning, preparation and professional development as per clause 3.1.2 (b) (iii).

5.9.8 The employer may permit employees to anticipate their next sick leave entitlement. Provided that the employee agrees the necessary adjustments will be made to final pay should an employee resign before the next entitlement falls due.

Such obligations may exist because of blood or family ties or because of particular cultural requirements such as attendance at all or part of a Tangihanga (or its equivalent).

5.12.2 In granting time off the employer must administer these provisions in a culturally sensitive manner taking into account:

The closeness of the association between the employee and the deceased Note: This association need not be a blood relationship);
Whether the employee has to take significant responsibility for any or all of the arrangements to do with the ceremonies resulting from the death;
The amount of time needed to discharge properly any responsibilities or obligations;
Reasonable travelling time should be allowed, but for cases involving overseas travel that may not be the full period of travel;
A decision must be made as quickly as possible so that the employee is given the maximum time possible to make any arrangements necessary. In most cases the necessary approval will be given immediately, but may be given retrospectively where necessary;
If paid special leave is not appropriate then annual leave or leave without pay should be granted.

7.1 Statement of the Parties | Tauākī o ngā Rōpū

7.1.1 It is the intent and purpose of the parties to this Agreement to promote harmony and co-operation between the employer and its employees, and to provide effective procedures for the prompt and equitable resolution of disputes which may arise from time to time between the employer and any employee covered by this Agreement.

7.1.2 In accordance with the provisions of the Employment Relations Act 2000 the following procedures and services are available to the employer and employee for the resolution of all employment relationship problems.

7.2 Definitions | Ngā Whakamārama

7.2.1 "Employment Relationship Problem" includes a personal grievance, a dispute and any other problem relating to, or arising out of, an employment relationship, but does not include any problem associated with the fixing of new terms and conditions of employment. An employment relationship problem may arise, (but is not limited to), when;

- a concern arises for an employee about any aspect of their employment or any action of their employer;
- a concern about an employee's health and wellbeing arises for an employer;
- a complaint involving an employee is received by an employer;
- a concern involving employee conduct arises for an employer; or
- a concern involving employee competence arises for an employer.

7.2.2 "Personal Grievance" - An employee may have a personal grievance where:

- They have been dismissed without good reason, or the dismissal was not carried out properly;
- They have been treated unfairly;
- Their employment or a condition of their employment has been affected to their disadvantage by an unjustified action of their employer;
- They have experienced sexual or racial harassment, or have been discriminated against because of their involvement in a union or other employee organisation, or have suffered duress over membership or non-membership of a union or other employee organisation; or
- They have been discriminated against.

7.2.3 "Dispute" means a dispute about the interpretation, application or operation of an employment agreement (refer s129 Employment Relations Act 2000).

7.3 Resolving Employment Relationship Problems | Te Whaaktau i ngā Raruraru Hononga Mahi

7.3.1 Many employment relationship problems will be able to be resolved by discussion between the employer and the employee(s) concerned, without the need to take the matter any further. Wherever appropriate, employers and employees should seek to resolve employment relationship problems in this manner in the first instance.

7.3.2 If an employee believes they have an employment relationship problem then they should talk to their supervisor about it. They should tell them:

there is a problem; and the nature of the problem; and what they want done about the problem.

If for any reason the employee feels unable to raise the matter with their supervisor the matter should be raised with the Principal.

7.3.3 The employee has the right to seek the support and assistance of the PSA at any stage of the process. The employer is entitled to seek advice and assistance from NZSTA or their adviser/representative of choice at any stage of the process.

7.3.4 Where the processes outlined above fail to resolve an employment relationship problem then;

An employer may decide to initiate procedures in accordance with clause 8.1 or any other appropriate procedure considering the circumstance (i.e. competency procedures).

An employee may consider the procedures outlined in clause 7.4. in order to resolve the employment relationship problem.

7.4 Personal Grievances | Ngā Nawe Whaiaro

7.4.1 A personal grievance must be raised with the employer within 90 days of the grievance occurring or coming to the employee's notice, whichever is the later. As with any employment relationship problem, the parties should always try to resolve a personal grievance through discussion in the first instance. A written submission is preferable but not necessary. Employees are entitled to have the PSA raise the grievance on their behalf.

7.4.2 If an employee believes they have a personal grievance based on discrimination, sexual or racial harassment, they may be able to make a complaint under the Human Rights Act 1993 to the Human Rights Commission. This is an alternative process as an employee cannot refer a personal grievance to both the Human Rights Commission and the Employment Relations Authority ("the Authority"). If in doubt advice should be sought before deciding.

7.4.3 If the problem cannot be resolved through discussion, then either party can request assistance from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, which may provide mediation services.

7.5 Other Services Available For Resolving Employment Relationship Problems | Ētahi Atu Ratonga E Wātea Ana Ki Te Whakatau I Ngā Raruraru Hononga Mahi

7.5.1 The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE) Mediation Service is available at any time to help parties solve problems in a balanced and fair way. They may help by giving information about you're the parties rights and obligations or they may suggest a meeting between the parties or anything else that they think might help.

7.5.2 To help resolve employment relationship problems, MBIE provides:

An information service

This is free. It is available by contacting MBIE by phoning toll free 0800 20 90 20. The Ministry's Employment Relations Service internet address is [https://www.employment.govt.nz/\(external link\)](https://www.employment.govt.nz/(external link))

Mediation Service

The Mediation Service is a free and independent service available through MBIE.

This service helps to resolve employment relationship problems and generally to promote the smooth conduct of employment relationships.

Mediation is a mutual problem solving process, with the aim of reaching an agreement, assisted by an independent third party.

If the parties can't reach a settlement they can ask the mediator, in writing, to make a final and binding decision.

A settlement reached through mediation and signed by the mediator at the request of the parties is final, binding and enforceable. Neither party can then take the matter any further and, either party can be made to comply with the agreed settlement by court order.

If the problem is unresolved through mediation either party may apply to have the matter dealt with by the Employment Relations Authority.

The Employment Relations Authority

This Authority is an investigative body that operates in an informal way. It looks into the facts and makes a decision on the merits of the case and not on the legal technicalities.

Either an employer or an employee can refer an unresolved employment relationship problem to the Authority by filing the appropriate forms.

The Authority may call evidence, hold investigative meetings, or interview anyone involved. It can direct the parties to try mediation. If mediation is unsuitable or has not resolved the problem, the Authority will make a decision that is binding on all parties. 8.1 Discipline and Dismissal | Ngā Whiu me te Whakakorenga

The following principles are to be followed when dealing with disciplinary matters:

The employee must be advised of their right to request union assistance and/or representation at any stage.

The employee must be advised of the specific matter(s) causing concern and a reasonable opportunity provided for the employee to state any reasons or explanations.

The employee must be advised of the corrective action required to amend their conduct and given a reasonable opportunity to do so.

Before any substantive disciplinary action is taken, an appropriate investigation is to be undertaken by management.

Depending upon the seriousness of the misconduct an oral warning should usually precede a written warning.

The process and results of any disciplinary action is to be recorded in writing, sighted and signed by the employee and placed on their personal file.

If the offence is sufficiently serious an employee is to be placed on suspension pending an investigation under (d).

An employee aggrieved by any action taken by an employer must be advised on their right to pursue a grievance in terms of the procedure set out in Section 7.

8.2 Notice of Termination | Pānui Whakakorenga Mahi

One month's notice of termination of employment should be given by either party but this may be varied by mutual agreement. An employee who has committed serious misconduct may be dismissed without notice.

8.3 Abandonment of Employment | Te Whakarere i te Tūranga Mahi

Where an employee is absent from work for of three consecutive working days, without appropriate authorisation from the employer, the employee will be considered by the employer as having abandoned their employment, unless the employee is able to show that they were unable to fulfil their obligation to notify their employer through no fault of their own. The employer will make all reasonable efforts to contact the employee during the three day period of unnotified absence.

8.4 Restructuring and Surplus Staffing Provisions | Ngā Whakaritenga Whakahouhou me ngā Toenga Kaimahi

The parties recognise the serious consequences that the loss of permanent employment can have on employees and propose to minimise this as far as possible by using the provisions of this agreement to keep as many employees as possible in suitable employment.

8.4.1 The parties recognise the serious consequences that the loss of permanent employment can have on employees and propose to minimise this as far as possible by using the provisions of this Agreement to keep as many employees as possible in suitable employment.

8.4.2 The Board shall at least on month prior to the formal commencement of any review which may affect PSA members in a School, advise the PSA of the review. The period of notice is to provide the PSA with the opportunity to be involved in the review. The aim of this process is to explore all options before any final decisions are made by the School.

8.4.3 When, as a result of the review, the School requires a reduction in the number of employees, or employees can no longer be employed in their current position, the process for managing the change(s) follows:

8.4.4 In consultation with the PSA and affected members, reconfirmation may be offered, subject to the following criteria:

the new job description is the same, or very nearly the same as the employee's current job description;
the salary for the new position is the same;
the new position has terms and conditions of employment, including career prospects, which are no less favourable;
the new position is in the same location, or within reasonable commuting distance.

Where the above criteria are met and there is only one clear candidate for reconfirmation, that employee is to be reconfirmed. Where there is more than one clear candidate, the School will consult with the PSA to reach agreement regarding options for filling the available positions.

Where there are employees who meet the criteria for reconfirmation, those employees shall not have access to other options in this section (except for leave without pay) until all positions available for reconfirmation are filled.

8.4.5 Following reconfirmation, the School may, in consultation with the PSA and individual employees, offer reassignment to employees who have not been reconfirmed. Reassignment means placement in a position similar to that previously occupied, which the employee is prepared to accept. Where a reassignment is to a job with a lower salary, the employee's salary can be preserved by paying a lump sum based on the loss of basic salary over the next two years.

8.4.6 Any affected staff who have not been reconfirmed or reassigned into a position will be declared surplus. The School will advise the PSA of the names of surplus employees and the date by which the surplus needs to be discharged.

The School will consult with the PSA and individual employees to see if options other than severance are appropriate; these might include leave without pay, retraining or redeployment elsewhere in the state sector.

4A.4.3 Administration support staff whose hourly rate upon translation exceeds the applicable Work Matrix maximum hourly rate will retain that higher rate.

4A.4.4 These increases are additional to, not a replacement for, annual progression under clause 4A.6.

The parties agree to amend the clause numbering in the agreement as follows:

4A.4 Placement on appointment

4A.4.1 The employer will determine job descriptions and / or other written requirements and the applicable Work Matrix Grade for all positions as part of the recruitment process.

4A.4.2 Upon appointment to an administration position, the employee's role must be placed in a Work Matrix Grade using the Administration Support Staff Work Matrix Table set out in clause 4A.2.1.

4A.4.3 The Work Matrix Grade of each role will be determined by identifying one or more of the highest level skills / demands / responsibilities, as set out in the Administration Support Staff Work Matrix Table in clause 4A.2.1 required for the competent performance of the role. The skills / demands / responsibilities must be a routine and ongoing part of the role; isolated or one-off demands must not be included. The employer should do this using the joint NZSTA / NZEI Te Riu Roa / Ministry of Education guidance provided for this purpose.

4A.4.4 An administrator employed for two or more distinct positions, must be placed in the appropriate Work Matrix Grade for each position.

4A.4.5 The pay rate can be at any step within the minimum and maximum rates of the applicable Work Matrix Grade. In determining the applicable pay rate, the employer should also consider any particular skills and qualifications held by the administration support staff as well as any previous relevant paid or unpaid work experience.

4A.4.6 Where an employee has previously been employed in an administration role covered by the Administration Support Staff Pay Equity Claim Settlement, and the break in employment (including between employers) has been less than 12 months then the following applies:

Based on information about their previous employment provided by the employee, placement on appointment must take into account their previous service as follows:

Where the skills / demands / responsibilities of the new role is within the same Work Matrix Grade as the previous role, the starting step should be at least the step they last held.

The employer should also consider any particular skills and qualifications held, as well as any previous relevant paid or unpaid work experience undertaken by the employee since they were last employed.

4A.5 Progression within the work matrix grades

4A.5.1 Subject to clause 4A.5.2 below, from 20 August 2021, for employees paid in Grades 5, 6 and 7 progression through steps within each grade will be on an annual basis, either on the employee's anniversary date or, where no anniversary date is established, 12 calendar months from the effective date of the pay equity rates and annually thereafter until the employee reaches the maximum step of their grade. Progression does not occur beyond the top step of these grades.

4A.5.2 Progression is subject to the employee meeting or exceeding standards of performance as assessed by the employer against the job description and/or written requirements for the position. Progression will occur unless the employer considers this requirement has not been met and has informed the employee in writing no later than two months prior to the progression becoming due.

4A.5.3 Subject to clause 4A.5.4 below, from 20 August 2021, for employees paid in Grades 2, 3 and 4 progression through the steps of Grades 2, 3, and 4 will be on an annual basis, either on their anniversary date or, where no anniversary date is established, 12 calendar months from the effective date of the pay equity rates and annually thereafter. Progression does not occur beyond the top step of Grade 4.

4A.5.4 Progression under clause 4A.5.3 will occur unless:

the employee is not meeting, or exceeding standards of performance as outlined in 4A.5.2 above; or the work is deemed to stay in the current grade, i.e., where the employer considers the work is solely within current grade and has informed the employee in writing no later than two months prior to the progression becoming due; or the employee has progressed to the maximum step of their applicable grade.

4A.5.5 An employee, who has the right to representation at any stage, may request their employer reconsider their salary progression.

4A.5.6 For employees employed prior to 4 July 2022, if progression on the basis of the rules set out in clauses 4A.5.1 to 4A.5.5 above would put the employee in a worse position than they would have been in had they remained subject to the pay scale and progression rules existing prior to 20 August 2021, the employee shall be entitled to progress to the rate they would have been on under the previous system.

4A.6 Pay equity review

4A.6.1 The remuneration of employees who routinely undertake work described in the Administration Support Staff Work Matrix Table set out in clause 3B.2.1 will be reviewed periodically to ensure that pay equity is maintained. These reviews will be aligned with the collective bargaining round.

4A.6.2 The parties agree to consider a range of available information as part of any review, including but not limited to, trends in changes to the Labour Cost Index, Consumer Price Index, and Treasury analysis of labour movements, as well as trends in changes to the remuneration of the comparator workforces used to assess the Administration Support Staff Pay Equity Claim.
