13. Information to Assist Applicants

Note 1: Nominating a Service Provider Contact Person

The Education (Early Childhood Services) Regulations 2008 require a contact person to be nominated for each service for which a licence is sought, and this person's name is displayed on the certificate of licence. The service provider is legally responsible for meeting regulatory requirements, not the contact person. However, the contact person must:

- represent the service provider;
- be able to respond to the Ministry of Education as soon as practicable on any issue relating to licensing;
- have the authority to act on behalf of the service provider; and
- reside locally.

In relation to the last bullet point, a person will generally be considered to 'reside locally' if they live within the geographical boundaries serviced by the local Ministry of Education office. Contact your local Ministry of Education office to discuss further if you are unsure whether the contact person would meet this requirement.

Note 2: Completing the Statutory Declaration

Who can I get to sign my statutory declaration?

- Section 9 of the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957 lists those who are authorised to take a statutory declaration.
- You will need to sign the statutory declaration in the presence of the person you have chosen.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that the person you select is authorised to witness your declaration.
- You should check that the person notes on the form, with their signature, their full name and the capacity under which they are signing the declaration, eg Justice of the Peace, barrister of the High Court.

Who does the statutory declaration have to cover?

When the service provider is made up of a group of people, the statutory declaration needs to cover the officers of the organisation that has identified itself as the service provider. In most cases, the deed of incorporation for the legal entity will determine this. The following table outlines the most common scenarios for service providers.

If the service provider is...	Then the statutory declaration should cover ...
An incorporated society	the office holders (such as Secretary, Treasurer and President)
A trust board	the board members
A company	the company director(s)
An individual person (whether registered as a legal entity or not)	only that person
An unincorporated body	the people that identify themselves as being part of the management body

How do I get the information I need from the people covered by the statutory declaration?

As the person signing the statutory declaration, you must satisfy yourself that the information supplied is correct. How you collect this information from the other people covered by the statutory declaration is up to you and your organisation. There is a range of ways that this might be done, including:

Information gathered through your recruitment or election processes	Personal knowledge of the person
Verbal assurances	Written attestation
Seeking police vets in relation to past convictions	Individual statutory declarations from each person covered (so that the statutory declaration to the Ministry of Education becomes a composite of individual declarations to the applicant)

How do I decide how to respond to the statements on the statutory declaration?

- You must circle one of the options at the beginning of each statement.
- If the service provider is a group of people and an affirmative answer applies to one or more people you must answer in the affirmative on the statutory declaration.
- Most of the statements are relatively straightforward – people will know whether or not they have any convictions, adjudications of bankruptcy etc.
- The main exception will be statement (b) regarding health conditions. It is important to be clear about the difference between (1) a mental/physical condition that might prevent people from managing their role in complying with the conditions of a licence or obligations under the regulations and (2) any other condition that would not have this kind of impact. Relevant factors to consider might include, for example, health problems that require frequent hospitalisation or sick leave, or that might render a person unconscious or quickly incapacitated. Frequency and severity of those conditions might also be relevant.

What will the Ministry of Education do if I answer in the affirmative (ie 'have', 'know of', or 'have had' or 'am aware of') on the statutory declaration?

If you answer in the affirmative for any statements you must attach all relevant information in relation to the matter. Answering in the affirmative to any statement does not automatically exclude the service provider from being deemed fit and proper to hold a licence. Given the range of unique circumstances that may be identified, all decisions about whether or not to grant a licence are made on a case-by-case basis at the Secretary's discretion.

What do I need to do if something changes – e.g. the service provider changes, or people's circumstances change that make the statutory declaration incorrect?

Regulation 35 of the Education (Early Childhood Services) Regulations 2008 requires that a service provider must notify the Ministry of Education as soon as practicable if any of the circumstances under (a) to (g) on the statutory declaration form have changed for any person who is covered by the statutory declaration. You do not need to notify the Ministry of Education every time someone new becomes part of the service provider UNLESS that person's circumstances make the information you have provided on the statutory declaration incorrect. Verbal or written advice of a change of circumstances will be accepted and a new statutory declaration will not be required.

The Ministry of Education will then review the new information and decide whether the service provider continues to be fit and proper to hold a licence. Given the range of unique circumstances that may be identified, all decisions are made on a case-by-case basis at the Secretary's discretion.

Note 3: Evidence of compliance with the Resource Management Act 1991

1. For a new centre, or a centre that began operating after 1991, evidence of compliance with the Resource Management Act will consist of a copy of the centre's resource consent with any attached conditions. If your application is for relicensing, check with your local Ministry of Education to see if this is already held on file.
2. For a centre that began operating before 1991, evidence of compliance with the Resource Management Act will consist of a letter from the Territorial Authority stating that the ECE centre has existing use rights under the Act. Contact your local Ministry of Education for further details.

Note 4: Evidence of compliance with the Building Act 2004

1. In the case of a newly-built (or recently renovated/converted) premises, evidence of compliance with the Building Act 2004 generally consists of:
 - a code compliance certificate (issued under section 95 of the Act),
 - a compliance schedule (issued under section 100 of the Act), if the premises require it.

If your premises also requires an annual building warrant of fitness (issued under section 108 of the Act), you do not need to send in a copy of this document – it will be sighted during the licensing assessment visit.

Note that in particular circumstances, a Certificate for Public Use (issued under section 363A of the Act) or a Certificate of Acceptance (issued under section 96 of the Act) may also be considered evidence of compliance. Contact your local Ministry of Education for further details.

2. In the case of premises built prior to 1992 that have not undergone any building work or alterations, evidence of compliance with the Building Act 2004 can be established by providing evidence of the age of the building.

Note 5: Site Plan and Premises Definition

Site Plan

To aid the assessment of your application indicate any defined activity space where appropriate (i.e. where your service has designated areas/spaces for the use of children of a specific age and/or number of children).

Premises Definition

In order to be granted one licence the premises must –

- be situated on a single site; and
- be for the exclusive use of the centre or hospital-based education and care service.

If the premises comprise of 2 or more components –

- each component must be immediately adjacent and connected to at least one other component; and
- children must have safe access to each component

In this regulation –

- component means any land or building that forms the part of the premises.
- premises means the premises from which the centre will operate, or from which the hospital-based education and care service will be provided.
