INDIVIDUAL EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT SPECIAL RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL STAFF

The Employment Relations Amendment Act 2018 came into effect on 11 December. One of the provisions of this Act reinstated the ‘30-day rule’ for new employees who are not union members.

The ‘30-day rule’ requires new employees (who are not union members) to be employed on the terms and conditions in the collective agreement for their first 30 days on the job – if their work is covered by a collective agreement.

This statutory obligation is matched by the coverage clause (clause 1.4.1) of the collective agreement, which requires a board of trustees as employer, to inform each new employee of the existence of the Special Residential Schools’ Collective Agreement 2019-2021, to be given a copy of it, and to be given the opportunity to join the PSA.

Employees who are not union members can sign an individual employment agreement (IEA) from 30 days after the start of their employment.

The attached document is the officially promulgated IEA for Special Residential Staff. Employers who want to offer employees something different from the promulgated IEA will still have to seek concurrence from the Employment Relations team at the Ministry of Education via Employment.Relations@education.govt.nz
